

Name:

ROAD SAFETY AWARENESS

Activity 5: Sharing your road safety awareness

Introduction

In this activity, you will be asked to use what you have learnt to prepare a piece of advice for Victorian road users and take a short, multi choice quiz.

You are the expert: It is not long before you are able to learn to drive a vehicle or perhaps you have had some lessons already! Using the fact sheet provided and your learnings from the activities, write a piece of advice to help road users to avoid crashes. Before you start, think about whom you are providing the advice to – for example, drivers, pedestrians, passengers.

Example – advice aimed at drivers

As speed increases, so does the risk of crashing and being seriously injured or killed. Make sure you travel at a speed appropriate to the conditions at all times.
